

Responsibilities

Coalition members are responsible for the oversight and management of the coalition including but not limited to community engagement, fiscal decision making, strategy development and implementation.

Duties:

Specific duties of being a coalition member include but are not limited to:

- Planning and setting priorities;
- Defining the role of the coalition in the community;
- Leading the coalition;
- Evaluating the contribution, the coalition makes to related outcomes;
- Connecting to the community;
- Recruiting new members;
- Participation in coalition events and activities;
- Representing the coalition within the sphere of personal influence and responsibilities;
- Educating the community on the coalition and its projects;
- Setting the budget for the coalition;
- Allocation of resources for the work of the coalition;
- Supervision and management of staff assigned to the coalition as applicable.